

PRESS RELEASE

5 DECEMBER 2014

TCC PARTNERS WITH ILRI IN FACILITATING COURSE IN SCIENTIFIC WRITING AND PUBLISHING

TCC held two short courses on Scientific Writing and Publishing on 25-26 November and 2-3 December 2014 at the International Livestock Research Institute, Nairobi Campus, Kenya.

The course was organized by the Training Centre in Communication (TCC) Nairobi and the International Livestock Research Institute (ILRI). Participants at the workshops were ILRI graduate fellows and early career researchers <http://maarifa.ilri.org/2014/12/05/why-publish-ilri-graduate-fellows-and-early-career-researchers-trained-in-scientific-writing-and-publishing/>.

The entire course was facilitated by the TCC local team, namely, Mr John Kamanu an agronomist and a Land Resource Management PhD candidate at the Land Resource Management and Agricultural Technology at the University of Nairobi.

TCC is a not for profit organization set up in 2006 and is in partnership with the University of Nairobi and is the first African-based Training Centre to teach effective communication skills. TCC has its headquarters at the University of Nairobi, Gecaga Institute, Chiromo Campus, and Nairobi, Kenya.

The centre's mission is to contribute to the increase in profile, locally, and internationally, of African science, and its impact on the life of Africans, by improving skills in technical communication in all forms, at academia and other relevant forums, in African countries. communication and publishing. TCC has opened a satellite office in Nigeria in partnership with Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria (OAU), through the Directorate of Linkages and Sponsored Research. The new office trains research scientists and postgraduate students from the Western Africa sub Saharan region. TCC has also opened an office in South Africa in partnership with The Innovation Hub.
