TCC PARTNERS WITH ILRI IN BUILDING CAPACITY IN RESEARCH DISSEMINATION FOR THE GRADUATE FELLOWS PROGRAMME

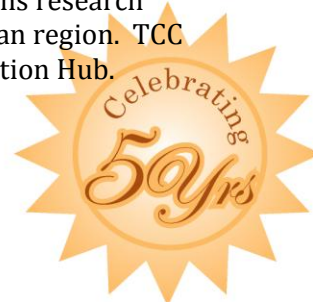

Training Centre in Communication (TCC) partnered with International Livestock Research Institute (ILRI), in building capacity in dissemination of research for ILRI graduate fellows and early career researchers.

The partnership began with co-organizing two workshops on Scientific Writing and Publishing on 25-26 November and 2-3 December 2014 at the International Livestock Research Institute, Nairobi Campus, Kenya. <http://maarifa.ilri.org/2014/12/05/why-publish-ilri-graduate-fellows-and-early-career-researchers-trained-in-scientific-writing-and-publishing/>.

2015, began with TCC slotting ILRI graduate fellows in the training calendar, an exercise that will end in December 2015. The focus of the training in 2015, will include Proposal Writing and Grants Management and Communicating to Non Scientists.

TCC is a not for profit organization set up in 2006 and is in partnership with the University of Nairobi and is the first African-based Training Centre to teach effective communication skills. TCC has its headquarters at the University of Nairobi, Gecaga Institute, Chiromo Campus, and Nairobi, Kenya.

The centre's mission is to contribute to the increase in profile, locally, and internationally, of African science, and its impact on the life of Africans, by improving skills in technical communication in all forms, at academia and other relevant forums, in African countries. communication and publishing. TCC has opened a satellite office in Nigeria in partnership with Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Nigeria (OAU), through the Directorate of Linkages and Sponsored Research. The new office trains research scientists and postgraduate students from the Western Africa sub Saharan region. TCC has also opened an office in South Africa in partnership with The Innovation Hub.
